Our work family has lost a valued and respected member with Casey's passing. Throughout his years of service with the Branch County Road Commission, Casey served with distinction, dedication, and professionalism. His commitment to public service and to the residents of Branch County left a lasting impact on our community and on all who had the privilege of working alongside him.

Beyond his career, Casey was a devoted husband, loving father, dedicated coach, and a friend to many. He was admired not only for his work ethic but also for his kindness, generosity, and genuine care for others. His positive influence reached far beyond the workplace and touched countless lives throughout our community.

Even in passing, Casey continued to demonstrate extraordinary selflessness through the gift of organ donation, offering hope and life to others in need. This final act of generosity reflects the character and compassion that defined his life.
